Think on These Things

Philippians 4:8

Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not know yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified. But I trust that you will know that we are not disqualified.

II Corinthians 13:5-6 NKJV

Our Family News

Today's Scripture

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

Ephesians 6:10-11 NKJV

Wisdom for Today

For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy.

James 3:16-17 NKJV

A Reminder

By Joe Murdock

The plea in this article is for the church to step up at this time. This is a moment in time where we can take advantage of this "hunkering down time" to glorify God. Think about this for a moment, right now our children are solely in our care. What are we as parents thinking about? I know that it is very easy to turn on Netflix or DisneyPlus to babysit our children, but we must not allow that to happen. We have an amazing opportunity while away from work, away from school or away from the distractions of this world to teach and learn in our own households! We should use this time to open the word of God. Our children's minds are not being infested with the falsehoods of evolution. They are not being fed lies of whether they are boys or girls, nor the idea that someone is better or more valuable because of the clothes they wear. Instead, their minds should be being filled with the word of God. And we should be the ones doing that.

Deuteronomy 6:1-3 NKJV "Now this is the commandment, and these are the statutes and judgments which the LORD your God has commanded to teach you, that you may observe them in the land which you are crossing over to possess, that you may fear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you, you and your son and your grandson, all the days of your life, and that your days may be prolonged. Therefore hear, O Israel, and be careful to observe it, that it may be well with you, and that you may multiply greatly as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you— 'a land flowing with milk and honey.'"

I understand that it had to be one of the most difficult decision for the elders to make changes to Sunday services and Wednesday bible study. But please understand that while these times of assembling are being adjusted our worship and praise to God does not stop. We as the church cannot look at this time as a spiritual vacation. It is really a time when the church can be growing inwardly. II Corinthians 4:16-18 NKJV "Therefore we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal."

We can have our young men leading in prayer and bible study at home. Our young girls can help their mothers sing children's songs. Mothers can teach their children all kinds of bible stories. And fathers STEP UP and lead your families! We as men bear the responsibility of teaching our family that in this time we do not give up. We press onward to praise and worship God, through study, prayer, and application. Many in the church need some sort of encouragement! Reach out to each other. And those who are in need please do not hesitate to ask for help.
